

Can I make a difference in the lives of people?

Anthem Care is a unique, integrated care community providing all levels of care, both private and subsidised in modern, functional, and comfortable surroundings in Bowral in the beautiful Southern Highlands.

At Anthem Care – “We are passionate about providing experienced, flexible and innovative care solutions to ensure that our residents are confident that their current and future care needs will be met.

We respect the decision each resident has made to allow us the privilege to serve them.

We encourage open honest communication and care deeply about our relationship with residents, team members and suppliers.

The ultimate measure of success is to receive endorsement from the residents who advocate our services.

We will always consider the interests of our residents and believe in residents’ wellbeing as a measure of our success.

We will always be mindful of costs, environment, integration with the wider community, efficiency and manage Anthem in the most effective way possible.”

At Anthem Care, we actively subscribe to a set of core values. They underpin the way in which we conduct our business, shaping our culture and defining our character. They are – Integrity, Respect, Teamwork, Care, Consistency.

Lifestyle Therapy (Diversional Therapy) – Part- time

Anthem in Bowral is an amazing Aged Care Facility seeking a fun, enthusiastic, creative thinking person to fill a casual position in our lifestyle team.

This creative person will be available to work Fridays as this is one of the days that your skills are required. The amazing applicant will contribute skills to the team like, smiling all day, being able to follow instruction, enjoying the experience of interacting with the elderly and being able to think outside the square.

The role will cover 9-5pm, days to vary but Friday essential. If you have no experience in lifestyle activities we will offer training, but personality and enthusiasm is essential to contribute to an existing functional, creative team dedicated to providing inspirational days to our residents.

If you think you are creative and inspirational and think you can make an incredible contribution, then we really look forward to meeting with you.
